camino ® A CANADIAN STORY

Camino is owned by La Siembra Co-operative in the Ottawa-Gatineau region of Canada. La siembra means “sowing” or “planting time” in Spanish, a symbol for the seeds of change sown through Caminos co-operative and fair trade business models. With a dedication to green-oriented, resource-friendly, environmental, organic and fair-trade practices, Camino is our Canadian local conscientious chocolate choice!

Products

Camino offers a wide range of Fairtrade and Organic certified food products, everything from our Cuisine Camino line for your everyday baking needs to our;

Professional & industrial lines

Camino’s commercial line of fair trade and organic products is designed to give the velvety texture and rich flavour needed to produce the perfect confection. Mousses, ganaches, truffles, crèmes, cookies, candies—let our products inspire as you mix, dip, enrobe and mould your exquisite creations.

All Camino commercial products are GMO-free and soy lecithin-free, certified organic by QAI, Fairtrade certified by Fairtrade Canada and certified kosher.

Quality you can trust!

All Camino food products are made from quality ingredients, grown by family farmers in Central and South America, and Southeast Asia. All Camino products are certified to the highest standards:

- Fairtrade certification is provided by Fairtrade Canada (part of the Fairtrade International or FLO system), and SPP (Simbolo de Pequeños Productores) which ensures that our producer partners receive a fair price for their products and benefit from fair trade premiums that are reinvested in their communities.
- Organic certification is provided by Quality Assurance International, one of the best-recognized international certification agencies and a global leader in organic certification.
